

Summary CV Emiliano Naranjo

- Graduated in Physical Education. (UNLaM<sup>1</sup>).
Specialist in Educational Management and Master in Education (UdeSA<sup>2</sup>)
- Is a professor at Hurlingham National University in the degree of faculty college in physical education and postgraduate major in education physical for people with disabilities.
- He is DGCyE<sup>3</sup>'s pedagogical consultant in the special education and physical education.
- He taught at the Chair: Didactics for Integration in Physical Education, in the National Silver University.
- Taught at the Republic Middle School of Romania (CABA)
- Was coordinator of the Inclusive Education area of the Association for Human Rights Civilians (ADC)
- Was a member of the Network for the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- Provided more than 50 conferences and trainings in inclusive education and Physical Education.
- Refers to inclusive education in different public and private schools.
- He was one of Argentina's representatives of civil society to the Committee on Rights of Persons with Disabilities of the United Nations. (2012)
- He is one of the benchmarks selected by UNESCO as a defender of the Education and Inclusion for Latin America and the Caribbean.
- He is the author of the book "Malestar de Educador", co-author of the book: "Rethinking education as an area of knowledge (Miño and Dávila).
- Has written multiple articles on the subject: Disability and Education

---

<sup>1</sup> National University of La Matanza

<sup>2</sup> University of San Andrés.

<sup>3</sup> Directorate General of Culture and Education (Buenos Aires)